She's performed for troops in Hawaii, Guam, Singapore, Japan, Honduras, Curacao, Bahamas, Guantanamo Bay and Greenland.

As a writer she's created, written, and starred in four digital series which have garnered millions of views on multiple platforms. Her web series The Program, co-created with Maria Bamford and produced by Funny or Die, was named one of LA Weekly's "10 best web series of 2014" while her series Romantic Encounters with Melinda Hill was recognized for "outstanding acting and writing in a comedy series" by LA Weekly Web Awards, LA Web Fest, IndieWire, and LA Film Fest. It was later acquired for international distribution in 50 countries and is now being developed into a feature film. She has written and directed projects for Super Deluxe, Huffington Post Comedy and Channel 101.
